

To L. H. F.

FUNDAMENTAL TECHNICAL STUDIES

ON A SCIENTIFIC BASIS

FOR THE YOUNG VIOLINIST

BY

D. C. DOUNIS

THEODORE PRESSER CO.
1712 CHESTNUT STREET
• PHILADELPHIA •

VIOLIN and PIANO COLLECTIONS for ALL GRADES

ALBUM OF FAVORITE FIRST POSITION PIECES

In this volume teachers have an ideal work for instructive purposes and young violinists find it just the volume to possess for their recreation or recital needs. There are twenty-two numbers of real worth arranged in progressive order, melodious and interesting, yet at the same time easy to play.

Price, $1.00

COLLECTION OF FIRST AND THIRD POSITION PIECES

Here is a worthy successor to the excellent Album of Favorite First Position Pieces. Eighteen numbers comprise the contents of this "follow-up" album, many of the pieces being copyrights which have never before appeared in any other collection. They provide splendid teaching and recital material for pupils just about ready to begin work in the third position.

Price, $1.00

STANDARD VIOLINIST

The thirty-two pieces in this excellent volume provide a wide variety of fine numbers suited to all possible occasions and well within the range of the average good player. Among the composers represented are: Bach, Beethoven, Drdla, Renard, Grieg and others.

Price, 75 cents

INDIAN MELODIES

For Violin and Piano
By THURLOW LIEURANCE

Numbers such as those to be found in this album always have the element of novelty when presented on a recital program. Every violinist should include these compositions in his repertoire. The themes of these numbers were taken direct from native sources by Mr. Lieurance and the arrangements are genuine transcriptions, not paraphrases.

Price, $1.00

STUDENT'S POPULAR ALBUM

For Violin and Piano

This bright and interesting volume contains material suitable for players of the early and intermediate grades. Students of the violin will find in this album material for recreation, for improvement in style and musicianship and for recital work.

Price, 90 cents

THE KNEISEL COLLECTION

For Violin and Piano
Edited by FRANZ KNEISEL
In Three Volumes

A really note-worthy contribution to the repertoire of the serious student of the violin. The three volumes comprising this superb collection represent a gathering into practical and permanent form of Violin Master Pieces, including compositions by Bach, Bazzini, Beethoven, Goldmark, Handel, Joachim, Lalo, Paganini, Spohr, Tartini, Tschaiakowsky and others. Close attention has been given to every detail of fingering, bowing, phrasing, and physical make up of the books, resulting in a series at once artistic and practical.

Price, $1.50 each

FAVORITE OLD TIME TUNES

For Violin and Piano

This is just such a volume as every violinist should have in his library for ready reference whenever there is a call for some of the old-time melodies. This book provides a generous assortment of the old memory-stirring tunes, all carefully and artistically arranged for the violin with piano accompaniment.

Price, $1.00

VIOLIN CLASSICS IN THE FIRST POSITION

Carefully fingered and phrased by Otto Zimmer, the more than thirty pieces in this album present an excellent group of simplified transcriptions of the favorite compositions of the great masters. All of the pieces are in the first position solely and they have been arranged with such care and intelligence that the beauties of the original melodies have been maintained.

Price, $1.00

VIOLINIST'S POPULAR REPERTOIRE

Here is a fine album of medium grade pieces making an appeal to the average player. Most of the twenty-nine numbers are by contemporary composers with a few standard classics included. This collection is useful for recreation playing at home or for use in concert or recital work.

Price, 75 cents

OPERATIC MELODIES IN THE FIRST POSITION

This fine volume contains the favorite melodies from such operas as Bohemian Girl, Faust, Martha, Norma, William Tell, and others. The violin part is arranged entirely in first position.

Price, $1.00

SELECTED CLASSICS

For Violin and Piano
Arranged by F. A. FRANKLIN

No better work for recreation and study purposes can be found than this excellent volume which brings the great melodies from the immortal classics within the range of the average player. Although these arrangements make no demands upon the player they are nevertheless all very effective and true to the originals.

Price, 90 cents

ALBUM OF TRANSCRIPTIONS

For Violin and Piano
By ARTHUR HARTMANN

The violin transcriptions by Arthur Hartmann are used by many teachers and students. The numbers in this collection were selected from the best and most popular transcriptions that Mr. Hartmann has made and which have been used by him with great success in his recitals. Most of these pieces are in first and third position.

Price, $1.00

EASY MELODIES IN THE FIRST POSITION

In Two Volumes
Arranged by GUSTAV SAENGER

A collection of favorite American Folk Songs, Children's Songs, National Songs, Minstrel Songs, and Hymns arranged by Gustav Saenger. Each melody is preceded by a scale exercise and other preparatory study so as to make the reading and playing of the melody a matter of easy accomplishment.

Price, 75 cents each

MORCEAUX CLASSIQUES

By H. STRAUSS and Others

A standard volume of transcriptions and original compositions by Liszt, Schumann, Chopin, Alabiéff, Simonetti, Schubert, Raff, Rubinstein, and others. Seventeen numbers are included. This work is issued in the Presser Collection.

Price, 75 cents

OPERATIC SELECTIONS

For Violin and Piano
Arranged by F. A. FRANKLIN

Melodies from the operas always make interesting violin numbers, both to the hearer and performer. This book contains an unusually fine selection of the well known melodies from such standard operas as Carmen, William Tell, Bohemian Girl, Martha, Lucia, Faust, and others, attractively arranged for about grade 3.

Price, 90 cents

THEODORE PRESSER CO.

MUSIC PUBLISHERS
1712-1714 Chestnut Street

PHILADELPHIA, PA.